Warranty claims are excluded in the event of damage to the goods due to:

- normal wear and tear
- improper or abusive handling
- non-observance of any safety precautions
- use of force (e.g. blows)
- attempts to repair the goods on one's own initiative
- environmental influences (heat, moisture, etc.)

A prerequisite for claiming under the guarantee is that the guarantor is enabled to examine the guarantee claim (e.g. by contacting the manufacturer). Care must be taken to avoid damage to the goods in transit by packing them securely. A copy of the invoice must be enclosed with the consignment of goods in order to enable the guarantor to check whether the guarantee period has been observed. Without a copy of the invoice, the guarantor may refuse to honour the guarantee. Furthermore, you must provide the name and address of the seller, if this information cannot be found in the copy of the invoice.

In the case of justified warranty claims, the warranty will be processed free of charge for you, i.e. the guarantor will reimburse any shipping costs for the outward shipment. If it is necessary to dismantle the goods in order to send them to the guarantor, the guarantor will bear the costs of dismantling.

Important note:

This manufacturer's warranty does not restrict your statutory rights in the event of defects and you can make use of them free of charge. Consequently, any existing statutory warranty rights against us remain unaffected by this guarantee promise. This guarantee promise of the manufacturer therefore does not violate your legal rights, but rather extends your legal position.

If the purchased item is defective, you can always contact us within the framework of the statutory warranty, irrespective of whether a warranty case exists or the warranty is invoked.
